Style Guide for Portfolio Website

A style guide regarding the midterm project.

Regarding Color

Color should be limited to the two shown on the right, black and white, to highlight the design rather then color choices.

Regarding
Fonts

Fonts would consist ideally of three to four. Conservatively, it would be one for the titles one for subtitles, and one for body type.

TITLE
LEMON

SUBTITLE
PERMANENT MARKER
BODY TYPE MONTSERRAT

Regarding Layout

Website would have the same logo, header, nav, and wide image with varying text and images under the image.

Regarding Images

Displays would be simplistic reminicint of subway ads.
A good reference would be https://www.lemonade.com/

Regarding links

Links would be limited to the ones sending the end user from page to page, and links on the contact page sending a person to my social media profiles.

```
                    HOME

        ABOUT ME           CONTACT

        LINKEDIN            EMAIL

Regarding drafts

Drafts were done in a sketch-book to provide an easy templete to work from, one where mistakes can be made and corrected quickly.
